

PROGRAMME

OULU 22-25 JULY 2014

	Tuesday 22nd
10.00ff	Registration
12.00-12.30	WELCOME - Opening words
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-15.30	Aurora Auditorium SYMPOSIUM: Perspectives on the History of Environmental Human Sciences Chairs: Väyrynen & Ruuskanen Väyrynen: Ethics and Politics of Stationary State Economy: Malthus vs. J.S. Mill Ruuskanen: Scarcity as a Research Framework: Conventional Ideas and New Vistas in the Humanities Niemi: One Man's Relationship with Nature Ended up to a Proposal of National Parks in the Nordic Countries Virkkala: THE KANTIAN SUBLIME AND ITS IDEA OF NATURE	Merikoski Auditorium SYMPOSIUM: Amateurs in the human and social sciences reconsidered Chair: Nathalie Richard Carroy: Marcel Sambat's psychology Plas: "The Society of animals": animals as emblems, natural history as sociology Podgorny: Archaeology and Confidence Men. The Travels of Joseph Charles Manó in South America, 1870-1886 Richard: The boundaries of amateurism: archaeologists and "tourists" in provincial learned societies, France, 19th Century
15.30-16.00	Coffee break

16.00-18.00	PSYCHOLOGY AND POLITICS Chair: Dennis Bryson Laine-Frigren: Expert Knowledge and Politics in Hungary after 1956 – Case of Psychology Pléh: Networks in the life and science of a left-wing liberal psychologist... Vajda: Arthur Koestler and the Great Schools of Psychology Robinson: How NATO brought Soviet social psychology to America	MEDICINE AND PSYCHOLOGY IN ANTIQUITY AND EARLY MODERN ERA Chair: Christian Allesch Basic: Cycladic Pregnant Figures: Reflection of Contemporary Medical Reality (Atat: Principles of medication...) Kallinen: Sparks of Soul or Godly Creation? An early modern controversy on the origin of souls Brauns & Miller: On an early idea of psychology or on the history of psychology in the 16th century
18.30-ca. 22.00	Get together at Lasaretti
Wednesday 23rd
09.00-10.30	ON METHOD AND TESTING Chair: David Clark Sokal: Understanding Testing as Technology Wieser: From Kriegslandschaft to the topology of the person. Kurt Lewin's work from a media-historical perspective Abma: The replication crisis in social psychology	SYMPOSIUM: APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY: A REASON FOR OR A REACTION TO CRISIS? Chair: Annette Mülberger Araujo: Wundt's defense of psychology in 1913: a way out of the crisis? Mülberger: Conditions and consequences of crises feelings: positivist expectations and applied psychology Proietto: Institutionalizing a science: Italian psychology between progress and crisis
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-12.00	DEVELOPMENT OF MENTAL MEDICINE AS THEORY AND PRACTICE Part I Chair: Sharman Levinson Solinas: Dangerous Passions. The construction and cultural and social impact of the 'psychiatric' framework of the passions in France and Germany (1790-1830) Schmidt & Simanke: Charles Lasègue: Resistance to a "neurological" alienism	SYMPOSIUM: APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY...Part II (Mülberger) Lombardo & Morgese: De Sanctis' contribution to psychological discipline in the XX century: methodological pluralism as the basis for applied psychology [Extra time for general discussion]

12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-14.00	KEYNOTE: Yrjö Engeström
14.15-15.15	DEVELOPMENT OF MENTAL MEDICINE AS THEORY AND PRACTICE Part II (Levinson) Paul Foley: Encephalitis lethargica: The mind and brain virus Kragh: Drug addiction in psychiatry	SYMPOSIUM: Evolution, science and society in Finland Chair: Pietikäinen Pipatti: Westermarck's Debt to Adam Smith Dahlberg: Improving Society. Edward and Helena Westermarck and New Intellectuals of the 1880's
15.15-15.45	Coffee break
15.45-17:45	SYMPOSIUM: ETHOLOGY: ECOLOGY AND OBJECTIVITY Chair: Jannes Eshuis Ferreira: Lorenz' human ethology: Between the research of the human singularity and the prophecy of the apocalypse Eshuis: Tinbergen's striving for objectivity Van Hezewijk: Adaptive toolboxes, ethology and objectivity Sailo: Man and Beast Conference 1969 – Building or Deconstructing the Idea of Innate Depravity?	SYMPOSIUM: Evolution, science and society in Finland, Part II (Pietikäinen) Timosaari: Calling for the Responsibility of the Father - Edward Westermarck on the Problem of Illegitimacy Ahmajärvi: People Are Not Each Other's Enemies – Gunnar Landtman's Ideas on the United States of Europe Lepistö: The Sociobiology Debate and the Rise of a Darwinian Left in Finland after 1975
19.00 - ca.22.00	Optional: BICYCLE TOUR ALONG OULU RIVER

	Thursday 24th
09.00-10.30	SYMPOSIUM: MEDICINE, MENTAL HEALTH AND ADJUSTMENT Chair: Pietikäinen Clark: The psychology of adjustment: the history of a concept Parhi: Psychopathy in the Service of Society Salminen: Indications for lobotomy in Finland	DISCIPLINARY BOUNDARIES Chair: Gordano Jovanovic Pizarroso: “Real and practical relations between psychology and sociology” in early 20th century in France: the case of Marcel Mauss, Henri Delacroix and Ignace Meyerson Loginova: Interdisciplinary Researches in Petersburg Psychological School Almonaitiene: The First Steps of Applied Social Psychology in Lithuania
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-12.30	MEDICINE, MENTAL HEALTH... Part II (Pietikäinen) Myllykangas: Suicide on barricades Sirotkina: The double-edged remedy: occupational therapy and how it worked or did not work in a Soviet psychiatric hospital Woodward: Mental Health in Palestine, 1967-2014	CENTRE & PERIPHERY FROM YALE TO JYVÄSKYLÄ Chair: Mike Sokal Jalava: Re-conceptualizing European Centres and Peripheries Zenderland: IMPORTING AND EXPORTING 1930s PSYCHOLOGIES: COMBINING EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN METHODS TO STUDY “THE IMPACT OF CULTURE ON PERSONALITY” Bryson: Mark A. May: Scientific Administrator, Human Engineer
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14.30	KEYNOTE II: Roger Smith: The equivocal voice of agency
14.30-15.00	Coffee break

15.00-16.30	THE IDEA AND PRACTICE OF INTERVENTIONIST/REPRESSIVE SOCIETY Chair: Zsuzsanna Vajda Jovanovic: HISTORICIZING THE «REPRESSION HYPOTHESIS»: FREUD, REICH, MARCUSE, FOUCAULT Freis: Reform, Prophylaxis, and Eugenics: “Mental Hygiene” in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, 1918-1939 Timo Vilén: TBA	The rise of neuroanatomical instruments in the human sciences Chair: René Hezewijk Schirmann: “The wondrous eyes of a new technology” – A history of the early electroencephalography of psychopathy, delinquency, and immorality Schleim: Request for recommendations: A history of fMRI-neuroimaging in the human sciences in Germany and the Netherlands 1990-2010 with a special focus on psychology
17.15-18.30	BUSINESS MEETING AT AURORA AUDITORIUM
19.00	CONFERENCE DINNER AT RAUHALA RESTAURANT

	Friday 25th
09.00-10.30	HUMAN SCIENCES AND THE WORLD WARS Chair: Ruud Abma De Santis: Italian Psychologists at the forefront: The Great War experience Von Hohenthal: Experience of War? German and British Psychologists during and after WWI White: “So Very Different”? Comparing and Contrasting Psychologists' and Psychiatrists' Descriptions of Second World War British Leadership Selection	CONCEPTS AND TERMS IN PSYCHOLOGY AND THERAPY Chair: Martin Wieser Allesch & Korenjak: Art as therapy: Historical and contemporary concepts Moro: Reworking Concepts in the “Realm of the Intelligible”: Language and Categories from Herbart’s Psychology to Steinthal’s Völkerpsychologie Mironenko: Concerning the Basic Vocabulary of Activity Theory
10.30-11.00	Coffee break

11.00-12.30	ARTISTS, MEDIUMS & HYPNOTISTS Chair: David Robinson Graus: Discovering Palladino's mediumship. Lombroso, Otero Acevedo and the quest for authority Hajek: Textual rapport: Suggestion as a literary process in late nineteenth-century French discourses on hypnotism Jaap Bos: 50 ways to deal with Van Gogh	SYMPOSIUM: Psychology Meets Public and Community Health: Historical and Longitudinal Studies Chair: Ian Lubek Ian Lubek: From spas to soda siphons (1770-1970): A history of the distribution of "pure water" and the role of "social hygiene", social psychology, and global consumerism. Monica Ghabrial: The development of Health Psychology and Behavioral Medicine (1962-2012) in the US: Contextual particularities and disciplinary boundary-bending. Van Merode: Longitudinal study of a Cambodian community's health challenges (1999-2014) : Data for a critical community health psychology
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13:30-14:30	Keynote III: Ray Fancher: Getting away with it (or not): Harvard Psychology in the 1960's.
14:30	FAREWELL!	