

FIRST CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The European Society for the History of the Human Sciences (ESHHS) invites submissions to its conference to be held from July 12 to July 14, 2017, at the Seminar for the History of Science, University of Bari ‘Aldo Moro’, Italy.

Sessions, papers, workshops, round-tables and posters may deal with any aspect of the history of the human, behavioural and social sciences or with related historiographic and methodological issues. However, this year's conference will pay particular attention to:

- history and new trends in historiography of human sciences
- circulation and popularization of scientific knowledge
- history of the body
- comparative studies and cultural hegemonies in history of science
- laboratory science and professionalization
- theories and practices in the historical development of human sciences

Submissions: must be received by March 17, 2017.

Please send your proposal electronically as attachment in MSWord (.doc/.docx) to each of the three members of the programme committee:

- Mariagrazia Proietto (mariagrazia.proietto@gmail.com)
- Annette Mülberger (annette.mulberger@uab.cat)
- Jannes Eshuis (jannes.eshuis@ou.nl)

Only proposals connected with original research should be sent. Please indicate the submission type (session, paper, poster, workshop or round-table proposal). Any submission should include the name, email, and institutional address of the proponent.

Oral presentations: send a 500-600 word abstract in English plus a short bibliography. In case your communication will be in another language, please inform the committee in order to assist you in planning linguistic support, if necessary.

Posters: send a 300 word abstract.

Proposal for a session, workshop or round-table: send a 500-600 word rationale of the event (plus a short bibliography) as well as a short abstract for each paper or intervention.

Notification of acceptance will be sent by April 30, 2017.

A limited number of travel stipends will be available to students or scholars who present a paper or a poster and need economic support. Please indicate along with your submission if you wish to be considered for this arrangement.
